Aim high and hit the mark

The rational message of the honorable, Deputy Speaker Bai Sandra Sema as she led the ribbon-cutting and the unveiling of one of her priority projects for the 2016-2017, the P37M Multi-Purpose Building during the August 7 Turn-Over Ceremony calling on the stakeholders of Cotabato City to actively take part in achieving CCSPC's university status as reflected in Republic Act No. 10585 - a bill that she also sponsored in Congress but marked by provisional approval due to pending compliance with some CHED requirements, needs to be taken into serious consideration if we really want to achieve and enjoy the university rank of our institution.

If we take a closer look on the programs and projects of our present College administration led by Dr. Dammang S. Bantala, the focus is more on facilitating the compliance of CHED requirements particularly in the development of academic, research, extension and production.

However, the achievement of our unified goal which is the full implementation of RA 10585 can be hardly achieved if we are too slow or even hesitant in working diligently, cooperatively and collaboratively.

Hence, the best thing to be done is to work hard, support the programs of our College administration, obey the orders as mandated by law and do our shared responsibilities with no vested interests but for the benefit of the majority. When this institution becomes a university, it means hitting the mark of success and everyone reaps the nectar of quality and productive life under the Guidance of the Omnipotent Creator.

We have undergone multifarious reforms and we reinforce long-standing strength and eminence to meet the interests of our valued stakeholders. The needs and demands of our times call upon us to articulate the vision and mission of our institution in this rapidly changing environment of global and digital society – a society plugged with tremendous challenges that had made us overcome them with hope and unity, a society that disorderliness and uncertainties exist to glue our commitment and let our hearts grow and improve the extent of our services for better CCSPC and strive hard to make it one of the best developers of human technology and a society where we can ignite the fuel of victory towards the achievement of peace, progress and development

At this point in time, our vision of converting our institution i.e., the Cotabato City State Polytechnic College (CCSPC) into a Cotabato State University (CSU) has been swiftly coming into our hands. The only thing we can do is to fully satisfy the requirements of the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) to reap and enjoy its full implementation in the near future. Indeed, the achievement of our vision lies on our enthusiasm to work hand in hand because failure to do so may delay the attainment of our unified dream, as the Ancient Greek author named Aesop had stated, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall."

Hence, through the power vested upon us, the following points should dwell into our hearts and minds:

- We should harness the power of CCSPC to advance research and learning across fields and disciplines to actively take part in our shared responsibility of changing the society through innovations based on legal means and explore answers to intellectual questions, both enduring and new and find solutions to society's most consequential problems.
- We must integrate global perspectives and introduce new approaches to teaching and learning that construct on the transformative abilities of a digital age, including current insights into human conduct and the human brain. Here at CCSPC, we are doing our best in our collaborations and connections with the global communities by means of the initiated agreements we have committed to seek higher standards for innovations in pedagogy as well as advancement in both human and nonhuman resources to provide experiential learning beyond the classroom which is one of the critical components of thinking and knowing.
- We must embrace constant change and commit ourselves in mobilizing CCSPC's intellectual, human and financial resources to realize our dreams. We earnestly invite everyone to actively take part in achieving our goals

LEARN FROM YESTERDAY'S DERELICTION, OVERCOME TODAY'S CHALLENGES AND RISE FOR TOMORROW'S FORTUNE

BismillahArrahmanArraheem. AssalaamuAlaykumWarahmatullahiTa'alaWaBarakatuh!

Indeed, all praise is due to ALLAH. We praise Him and seek His Help and forgiveness. We seek refuge in Him from the evils of our souls and our wrong doings. He whom He guides, no one can misguide; and he whom He misguides, no one can guide. Glory be to Him who does not treat the citizens of His Kingdom unjustly and harshly. Glory be to Him who does not let torment and pain come suddenly upon mankind. Glory be to the Compassionate, the Merciful. We ask Him to fill our hearts and minds with true enlightenment, discerning intelligence, quick understanding and knowledge. Verily, Thou art able to do all things (Al-Imran 3: 26-27).

Your Excellences, Friends, Ladies and Gentlemen. May the Peace and Blessings of the Almighty be upon all those who in one way or the other made meaningful contributions for the successful conduct of this magnificent occasion specifically under the strong and effective administration of the College President Samson L. Molao, Ed. D.

I am deeply honoured to be a part of the historical and remarkable ceremonies of Cotabato Foundation College of Science and Technology (CFCST) in commemorating its Golden Jubilee with the theme: "CFCST on its Golden Year: Rises Above All Challenges" in which I believe this motif is a very timely intervention in facing tremendous issues and concerns during this 21st Century.

In juxtaposition to the case of homo sapiens, fifty years is a major milestone for an institution. It is at this point in time that the fruits of golden years are in your hands. The only way to enjoy these fruits is to masticate them to gain from its savoury flavour and beneficial effects particularly in converting this institution as a safe refuge and haven of intellectuals in 2023 and beyond. It is also for the benefit of the clientele who deserve the right to quality education and uphold their socio-economic conditions for global competitiveness as reflected in your institutional vision, mission and goals.

This milestone proffers a magnificent opportunity to ponder upon the past events of CFCST including the great contributions of the various institutional resources of yesterday and today for the production of successful graduates who had served as role models in enriching and sustaining the social, moral, mental, physical and psychological dimensions of man, who is considered the highest form of God's creations and whose progeny shall be expected to become future intellectuals and moral leaders who can bring positive changes in the global world.

One of the famous writers, Harper Lee once said, "As you mark 50 years of success, you have every reason to be proud of." I believe that behind success, lies varied challenges. The more you face challenges, the greater your chances to gain more success. It is a real phenomenon that after the rain, comes the sunny day; and after sunset, comes sunrise. I am very much certain that CFCST will continue to rise and remain to rise in preparing its clientele for a life-long learning in order for them to become assets in the family, school and the community.

Hence, the commencement of the last fifty years of CFCST's survival is about the beginning of great changes and improvement as it may use its gains-the alumni and other stakeholders in achieving its vision, mission, goals and objectives. Likewise, it is my firm conviction that thru the effective management skills of CFCST President Malao and the commitment of his faculty and staff in collaboration with all the stakeholders concerned, this institution shall become the home of future heroes and the haven of intellectuals who are the players of dignified services leading to efficiency, effectiveness and productivity. Once again, congratulations to CFCST on its golden years of existence!

MESSAGE FOR LEADERS AND CITIZENS OF THE WORLD

Towards Peaceful and Progressive Society through Innovation, Good Governance and Collaboration

Before anything else, please allow me to salute everyone with Islamic greeting, “Assalaamu Alaykumwarahmatullahi Ta’alaWaBarakatuhu!” This means, may the peace and blessings of God be upon you.”

I felt so much blessed and deeply honoured to be one of the thousands of enthusiastic participants for this spectacular and very timely occasion - this year’s Summit, the 3rd Annual Commemoration of the September 18th World Alliance of Religion’s Peace (WARP).

Likewise, I am so much impressed and very willing to support on the mission of this assembly particularly concerning its desire to bolster teamwork between and among policy makers and civil societies so as to achieve the essential elements contained in the Declaration of Peace and Cessation of War (DPCW) such as the integration of Peace Education in the Curriculum, transformation of the weapons of war into tools beneficial to humanity, global harmony as well as reconciliations among religions of the world.

Moreover, I extremely applaud the great work of remarkable leaders behind this convention specifically initiated by the Heavenly Culture, World Peace, Restoration of Light (HCWPL) manned by his Excellency, Peace Advocate Man Hee Lee with the assistance of his coordinators in different parts of the globe most especially the Philippine Coordinator GijanCoyme who has been working hard to communicate the features of this convention.

This scheme of annual gathering of various sectors of society- the political and religious leaders, heads of women’s and youths’ groups, civil society including the media all over the globe has not been successfully planned, organized and implemented without Divine Intervention; hence we ought to express our praises and thanks to the Omnipotent Creator for allowing us to join in this very special activity and for using active leaders to come up with this kind of global convention hosted in this beautiful and progressive country of Seoul, Republic of Korea known as the “Land of the Morning Calm.”

Desiring to encourage and stand for peace as a legacy that can be passed down to the future generations, I expect to learn much from this Summit by interacting with other leaders and representatives from various individuals and organizations and share relevant experiences in working for the promotion of peace and building a strong foundation for best practices for me and other participants to emulate.

Indeed, I firmly agree that peace is not something that people can simply dream about and wait for, but it is a reality that must be created through the concerted efforts of all global citizens. I guess this year’s Summit will lead into the ratification of international legal laws that bind the global citizens for the attainment of world peace from vision into a reality.

As we are all gathered in this occasion as one team of peacemakers with similar focus to learn the real essence of standing together for the immediate achievement of peace, we should bear in mind that we are all messengers of peace. It is our shared responsibility that we must take into serious consideration since we really want to live a fruitful life.

Under the scheme of calling all citizens of the world to work for the creation of sustainable peace in both national and international levels, with the theme, “Establishing Collaborative Governance between State Governments and Civil Society Actors for Sustainable Development and Implementation of Declaration of Peace and Cessation of War,” I believe that the realization of our vision for peace and prosperity shall be in our hands through the collaborative effort of everyone concerned.

Armed with a common goal and hungry for the immediate attainment of peace and prosperity with a solid foundation of collaboration, we left the comfort of our homes to take part in the quest concerning the cessation of war and promotion of long lasting peace as manifested in our occasion’s slogan, “Together for Peace as Messengers of Peace.” This determination for peace as we want to express will surely rekindle the hearts of all participants who have a sincere desire to spread the message of peace being involved as international peace messengers.

In order to achieve this goal, I strongly agree that there is a need to support the WARP Summit in its pursuit of holding individual conferences discussing the role and responsibility of each group- religious, political, social, and all dimensions of society to come up with concrete action plans.

In the real sense, all human beings are born to face their responsibilities and behind these responsibilities lay their accountabilities. In this period of global interconnectivity, our shared responsibility is on the promotion of peace and its sustainability.

It is my conviction that our vision for peace depends on the strategic measures of collaboration. With the destruction of lives and dreams left by the horrors of the past and contemporary wars, there is really an urgency to foster cooperation in the global community to spread a culture of peace and settle conflicts throughout the world as well as reach the core virtue of solidarity and world peace and efficiently arrive into long lasting solutions to any global problem with the comprehensive synergy among those in all levels of society.

One strategic measure of achieving peace is to use our culture in spreading peace. It is really true that in today’s globalized world there is a complex web of interconnected states and organizations, so only a comprehensive approach to peace that addresses these relationships has the power to succeed in establishing a long-term, sustainable peace. As a participant of this year’s WARP Summit, I consider it meaningful and effective to involve in the discussion on the benefits of sincere cooperation between governments and civil society actors, and the role of this type of global peace governance

AWESOME VIEW of the Intercontinental Seoul Coax, Republic of Korea, the venue of this year's WARP.

On the other hand, eagerness has propped within me to learn and understand one of the targets of this Summit which is on Peace Education Curriculum. This is indeed a timely innovation in education to address the needs and demands of the global community. We all know that on this planet Earth, people have been created with various nationalities, races, cultures and religions. It is for this reason that the achievement of peace is difficult to achieve but we should be thankful that through this Summit, we can come together as a family to voice out our sentiments, combine our forces and offer possible solutions to different challenges in connection to peaceful living. With the new ideology on solving conflict by integrating peace education in the curriculum, I believe this can be a means for us to live harmoniously with other people regardless of who they are. This is the best legacy we could leave behind for tomorrow's generation which is far better than wealth, fame and power.

Through the vision and goal of Peace Education that focuses on enlightening students to become equipped with an ideology and mindset of peace and lead the work of spreading a culture of peace, it will surely help them discover more humane aspects and capabilities by studying the basic requirement inherent to humanity for the attainment of peace. This could be achieved by promoting multiculturalism in education.

Knowing the different cultural perspectives and understanding their implications to the society may become effective means of inculcating peace to the hearts and minds of the students who are expected to be the future leaders and vicegerent on this Planet Earth. They will be exposed on new concepts of peaceful society free from evils and corruptions through the contents of Peace Education Curriculum. Hence, education may become a powerful tool in achieving peace. It is therefore indispensable for them to be properly educated and learn the value of peace in achieving happy and progressive living.

From the traditional point of view of using skills and intellect to build a civilization of nuclear weapons for mass destruction to gain power, fame and wealth to the modern and innovative concept of using skills and abilities in building peaceful and progressive society, the spirit of collaboration by all sectors is highly needed in establishing long lasting peace. However, peace should begin within ourselves so that we can have the power to influence others like our families, relatives, acquaintances, colleagues and all the people surrounding us.

Now, before I end my message, I would just like to share one of the relevant Islamic principles taught by Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him who has been the final messenger of Allah (specific name of God). He stated that people should support and spread peace on earth as Allah says in the Noble Qur'an, the Last Testament sent by God: "And the servants of the Most Merciful are those who walk upon the earth easily, and when the ignorant address them [harshly], they say [words of] peace" (Al-Furqan: 63).

Even the Islamic greeting alone which says, "AssalaamuAlaykum... (peace be upon you) that demands a better response to the recipients can suffice that everyone who believes in God should strive to sustain both inner and outer peace. Even by just giving a sincere smile to others can become a charity as explained by the Prophet and I believe this can be a powerful strategy in promoting and sustaining peace on earth. It is for this reason that I am sincerely encouraging all sectors of the society to strengthen their faith to the Divine Providence specifically for the leaders to lead justly considering the common interest of everyone not on selected ones. In this case, the thought of creating troubles that can affect the harmonious relationship with one another will not be considered; instead, everyone should work together for the sustainability of peace and harmony.

Hence, my advice for everyone is: Go for innovation, good governance and collaboration. These three principles spell the immediate attainment of long lasting peace in the whole universe under the guidance of the Omniscient Being.

in the advancement of the DPCW. This is the beneficial time and opportunity for me and my co-participants to realize the essence of solidarity in achieving global peace and progress.

In line with the two of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) promulgated by the United Nations, good governance becomes a striking formula in the context of world peace. A government for the people, by the people and of the people are critically important within the process of building peace. I'm sure this year's summit will directly demand states and civil society organizations with the commitment of generating a comprehensive system of international laws and political policies including nongovernmental collaboration that equally encompasses all groups and individuals under a common value of peace.

Through this WARP Summit, I guess everyone is encouraged to devise comprehensive coordinated action plans contributed by each sector to serve as bases in the implementation process in the global society. As the saying goes, "Two heads are better than one."

“CCSPC Muslim studies, optimistic on the achievement of peace”-ABS CBN

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness: only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate: only love can do that.”

This was one of the greatest legacies left by one of the famous American Civil rights advocates Martin Luther King Jr. from his Testament of Hope: The Essential Writings and Speeches which played a great impact on the dispositions of Muslim students of Cotabato City State Polytechnic College (CCSPC).

ABS-CBN Reporter Lorie Mae Andong said in an interview on July 17 by the SUARA News Letter Editor-in-Chief Joanie T. Haramain, Ed. D. that majority of the Muslim students of CCSPC responded optimistically on the promotion of peace in the country.

Based on face-to-face interview of the ABS-CBN on the reactions of the Muslim students at CCSPC specifically on the submission of Bangsa Moro Liberation (BBL) for affirmation by the Duterte Administration, the Muslim students reacted positively on its approval and implementation. “They are happy and hoping for the immediate approval and implementation of the BBL,” the ABS-CBN added.

Moreover, a transferee student, Nurul-Aljihad Pangandaman’s mother from Marawi said she is hoping for the attainment of peace so that conflicts will not become aggravated particularly at her hometown in Marawi.

On the other hand, Chairman of the Bangsamoro Transition Commission Ghazali B. Jaafar requested the office of the College President Dammang S. Bantala, Ph. D. to send at least three CCSPC faculty to be temporarily detailed at the Bangsamoro Transition Commission (BTC) namely: Asst. Professor Raby B. Angkal, Instr. Jodsbarie B. Compania and Dr.Norodin D. Salam.

Meanwhile, the Bangsamoro Doctors of CCSPC were invited to join the two-day seminar workshop with the theme, “The Imperatives of Contemporary Bangsamoro Education,” at Pagana Hotel, Cotabato City on July 12-13 sponsored by the Association of Bangsamoro Doctors in the Philippines particularly on Bangsamoro Professionals with Doctoral Degrees in the Social, Economic, Political and Agricultural Sciences.

Topics that were carefully selected focused on the imperatives of Bangsamoro Education, salient features of education under the new BBL Draft; and how to counter violent extremism through education.

“The opted topics maybe used to shield the youth from the dangerous influence of violent extremism and convince them that there is a more honourable, just and Islamic approach to address the ills of contemporary society and correct them through peaceful, non-violent means and how all of these can be better achieved through education,” asserted by one of the CCSPC doctors.//JTH

CCSPC Board approves inclusion of BSEd Filipino in College of Education Curriculum

Cotabato City State Polytechnic College (CCSPC) Board of Trustees (BOT) approved the proposed additional offering program of the College of Education during the 121th/2nd Quarter Regular Board Meeting, July 14 in Davao City and finally approved thru Resolution No. 248, s. of 2017 which was passed during the 3rd Regular Board Meeting, Sept. 13 in Diliman, Quezon City.

Board Committee on Academic and Research chaired by DOST XII Regional Director Hadja Bai Sitti-eShayma Zenaida Raof-Laidan reviewed, scrutinized and deliberated upon the approval and recommendation of the program offering of Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education (BSEd) Major in Filipino by the Academic Council thru Resolution No. 014 s. 2017.

Based on the endorsement submitted by the Board Committee, the presentation had conformed to the standards set by the committee and had integrated the necessary corrections made during the committee deliberations.

College of Education Dean Tarhata S. Guiamalon, Ph. D. said the additional offering program has been in response to the clamor of the stakeholders in the nearby places since none among the Colleges and Universities in the city has been offering the BSEd Major in Filipino.

“The proposed curriculum for BSEd Major in Filipino as additional course in the College of Education has integrated the mission and vision of the College in promoting studies and researches for the development, propagation and preservation of the Filipino and other languages,” Dr. Guiamalon said when she presented the rationale of the said curriculum proposal.

Likewise she said the Course Description and General Objectives had been prepared including program course outline, classrooms, and faculty including program administration.

“Based on the endorsement from Academic Council and Certification and Endorsement from Board Committee on Academic and Research Matters as well as on the recommending approval of the BOT, BSEd Major in Filipino will commence on the First Semester of Academic Year 2017-2018,” she added.

Meanwhile, the Department of Education (DepEd) Cotabato expressed an acknowledgement for the inclusion of the said curriculum for it will alleviate the scarcity of Filipino teachers in the division.//COE

College admission, retention programs enhanced

In support for the Department of Education’s mission of achieving quality education and in response for its mission of providing advanced education to its clientele as well as in preparation for the full implementation of the free tuition in the state universities and colleges, the different departments of Cotabato City State Polytechnic College (CCSPC) strengthened their admission policies and retention programs.

CCSPC President Dammang S. Bantala, Ph. D. explained that aside from the existing general admission and retention policies of the College, the departmental admission and retention programs were subjected for improvement in order to deliver excellent services to the diverse body of undergraduate students and to encourage them to excel in their own field of specialization.

“This enhancement scheme shall contribute for the strengthening of the institution’s professional and non-professional programs as well as to improve the capacity of our graduates,” Dr. Bantala said.

He emphasized that the said policies will likewise strengthen Curricular standards, requirements and criteria for admission and retention.

“Retention standards will be adapted to increase students’ success by holding them accountable for their academic performances particularly in the earlier stage of their college education,” the College president explained.

Resolution No. 018, s. of 2017 concerning the enhancement program was ratified during the Joint Academic and Research Councils’ Meeting of CCSPC, Aug. 31 at the Audio-Visual Room and submitted to the Board of Trustees for their information and approval.//JTH

Electronic Payment Portal System, solution for challenging procedures in the Cashier's Office

Desiring to provide efficient and more convenient services for the students particularly in paying their tuition and other school accounts, Cotabato City State Polytechnic College (CCSPC) President Dammang S. Bantala, Ph. D. solicited the services of the banks in the collections of students' accounts.

“Payments of tuition and other fees maybe done thru Electronic Payment Portal (ePP) of the Land Bank of the Philippines (LBP) anywhere in the country,” the College president said.

Further, he said that with this new scheme, students could also enrol on-line anywhere in the world.

The Memorandum of Understanding made by the CCSPC president together with the LBP was confirmed during the 121th/2nd Quarter Regular Board of Trustee's Meeting on July 14 and finally approved during the 3rd Quarter Regular Board Meeting, Sept. 13 in Diliman, Quezon City.

LBP, a government financial institution duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the provisions of Republic Act No. 3844 has committed to support the CCSPC in its objective of providing fast alternative payment collection services to its clientele.

Likewise, both parties have agreed and covenanted that the collection shall be deposited to the CCSPC in the same day and that the Official Receipt shall be provided by the institution in which the DBP shall submit daily the abstract of collection together with the duplicate copy of the deposit slip in which the students shall have the original copy of the Official Receipt of payments.

Dr. Bantala said his administration has been very much willing to avail on the ePP, designed and operated by LBP since it has been an internet-based payment system that allows clients to pay for products or services of both government and private institutions and allows partner-merchants to view payment transactions in real-time manner; hence it enables the institution's clients to pay their tuition and other payments through LBP's electronic payment gateway and print system-generated confirmation slips.

“LBP shall be the depository bank of CCSPC and all offices under its jurisdiction for and in connection with the ePayment Portal including other electronic banking services,” the College president said.

Meanwhile, based on the Memorandum of Agreement made between the president of CCSPC and the Development Bank of the Philippines (DBP), a government financial institution duly created and existing under and by virtue of Republic Act 3147 with principal office at corner Sinsuat Avenue and Don Rufino Streets, Cotabato City, the bank agreed to accept over the counter payments of CCSPC students direct to the CCSPC Trust Fund accounts.

“DBP can readily accept payments anywhere in the country. The schedule of payments shall start on the 5th day of July until August 31,” the CCSPC president added.

He said the MOA shall become effective on the date of signing and maybe modified changed or terminated at any time by mutual consent.//JTH
